

A diagram of a shower stall. It features a curved glass door on the left and a fixed glass panel on the right. Both the door and the panel have a vertical ribbed texture. The door is hinged at the top and bottom. The shower pan is at the base, and the walls are on the sides.

